

CHILD AND ADOLESCENT COVID-19 CASES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

16.6%

of COVID-19 cases are reported in children and adolescents 19 years and younger

COVID-19 CASES AMONG CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS, BY WEEK ENDING ON

The average age of child and adolescent COVID-19 cases is 12.6 years while the average age for hospitalizations is 9.3 years.

COVID-19 HOSPITALIZATIONS IN CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS, BY RACE

RATE PER 100,000

Black children and adolescents are hospitalized at a higher rate than their White counterparts, despite being diagnosed with COVID-19 at similar rates.

Since reporting in August there have been 13,414 cases of COVID-19 among school students and 4,342 among school employees.

Since peaking in January, cases among children and adolescents have been on the decline.

CHILD AND ADOLESCENT COVID-19 CASES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

COVID-19 CASES IN CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS, BY AGE GROUP

COVID-19 cases among the 15-19 year age group occur at a rate 3.6 times as high than those cases occurring in the 1-4 age group

COVID-19 CASES IN CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS, BY AGE GROUP

Female children and adolescents see a 9.3% higher rate of COVID-19 when compared to their male counterparts.

COVID-19 CASES IN CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS, BY ETHNICITY

Approximately 8% of COVID-19 cases among children and adolescents are Hispanic or Latino.

SUMMARY

COVID-19 cases among children and adolescents are higher among those aged 15-19 years of age. Cases have been decreasing, consistent with state numbers.

Adolescents 12 and older are recommended to be vaccinated when they are able to do so.

PRODUCED BY THE BUREAU OF POPULATION HEALTH DATA ANALYTICS
& INFORMATICS

DATA AS OF 11:59 PM ON 5/1/2021
DATA ARE PROVISIONAL